permission was granted, they built thatched huts there. When this last was brought on the takrar list of 1889-90, the Jamabandi Officer ordered that as the huts were built after making the application they may be allowed to stand on the applicants paying a valuation of Rs 1.4.0 for every 5 guntas. The required amount was recovered and credited.

The petitioners are coolies having no lands and state that they live in these huts permanently.

No village site has been assigned to this village at the settlement, and a few resident Holiyars have built huts on occupied lands.

As these men have paid the valuation of the land and are paying Inchataraja tax and as the villagers have no objection, the appropriation of 1 acre of land for a village is recommended.

Gonal statement with necessary particulars accompanies.
